ISKALO DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCES NEW ELECTRIC TOWER TENANT

Williamsville, NY – Iskalo Development Corp. today announced that the Law Office of Lindy Korn will occupy the entire 9th floor of the Electric Tower, located at 535 Washington Street in Buffalo’s Central Business District. The new office location recently opened for business.

“Moving into the Electric Tower is an exciting and significant step for our firm,” Lindy Korn, Esq., owner, said. “We chose it because it is a match in terms of our space needs and in addition, being in a highly visible, iconic building will help us grow our practice.”

“We are pleased that Lindy Korn and her firm have selected the historic Electric Tower, and we think they will be a great fit for the building.” Paul B. Iskalo, President and CEO, Iskalo Development, said. “We are also pleased that the firm chose to remain downtown and continue to be part of the re-emerging Central Business District.”

The Law Office of Lindy Korn focuses on the primary practice areas of plaintiff oriented civil rights with an emphasis on the prevention and correction of sexual harassment and retaliation in the workplace, and risk management focusing on safe complaint procedures, early reporting, and investigations. For more information, visit www.lkorn-law.com.

The Electric Tower was acquired by Iskalo Development from Niagara Mohawk in 2004. Iskalo has returned the property to its original grandeur, starting with the restoration and reconstruction of the two-story lobby space and the build-out of tenant office suites. The building was rededicated in August, 2007, and serves the community as the host of the annual New Year's Eve 'Ball Drop' which includes a midnight fireworks extravaganza witnessed by tens of thousands Western New Yorkers each year. For special community occasions, the Tower is lit in custom colors at dusk and stays lit until dawn. A limited number of prime office suites are still available for lease.
